SUMMARY

A possible explosives storage area is located 12 kilometers (km) southwest of Mtsensk (Figure 1). A probable support area is located 3 km north of the storage area.

The secured storage area covers approximately 125 acres and contains 4 revetted possible explosives storage buildings, 2 storage buildings, and 4 clearings which contain probable construction activity. Seven support buildings are located immediately north of the secured area. The probable support area contains 1 administration building, 4 barracks, 9 support buildings, and an athletic field (Figures 2 and 3).

The installation was covered on KEYHOLE missions between [REDACTED] and appears to be occupied. The installation consisted of two separate secured areas on [REDACTED]. Four clearings were added and the entire area was secured between [REDACTED]
